Unto the mighty populace of the Outlands do We Alrik III and Salomea send greetings. We would like to take this opportunity to thank Our predecessors, Duke Bela and Countess Anna, for stedfast service and dedication to the Outlands during their reign. From strong and caring hands do We inherit stewardship of these precious lands.

Outlanders, greet the warm growth now spreading throughout the Kingdom. A time of renewed vision and vitality is upon us. As Our first Kingdom War approaches its imperative that all Outlanders work together to make Battlemoor a success. If you have not yet found something you can do to help with the event, please contact a member of the Autocrat staff and volunteer your skills. An astounding amount of work has already been completed, though there is still much more that needs to be done.

We are still in search of Ladies in Waiting and Royal Guards to serve on Our retinue. We already have many wonderful Outlanders signed up to help Us over the summer, yet more are still needed. Anyone wishing to serve on Our Retinue should speak to Us at an event or email Our head of house, Baroness Muirenn; her email is on the Outlands website. We promise to make it a memorable time for anyone that wishes to serve their Crown and Kingdom in this capacity.

We hope to see and speak with many of you over the summer. This is the time of year to remember why we spend so much of our energy playing this game. Let's make this camping season the best yet, one that all of us will hold in our hearts for years to come.

Greetings unto our good neighbor the Kingdom of the Outlands.

I put pen to hand this day to bring forth to you the tales of glory and justly deserved word fame that your army as small as it was gained for themselves this year at Gulf Wars. I had the honor to be the commander of the Ansteorran forces this Gulf War. As we had the joy of fighting with you at Estrella, so did we also have the joy of fighting with you again at Gulf. Your army fought hand and glove with our allies of Calontir for most of the war and did a noble and doughty job. But one battle in particular did they cast such a great shadow that I can honestly say that the little band of Outlanders we had with us turned the tide of the battle. Let the set the scene for you. It's the third field battle, With the score balanced and the point in doubt. His Majesty Ansteorra had called court between the scenarios, and we were denied time to get ourselves set up and ready to fight. Many of our solders didn't even have helmets on yet when lay on was called. From this Chaos and the ugly mess that followed, came a hard fought battle. Twice was I convinced we had lost the battle and it was just a matter of fighting the good fight. But unbeknownst to me, the Outlands forces did see an allied unit in trouble, and run to their assistance, saveing them from utter destruction. Combining in with the remnants of this unit they then proceeded to move from fight to fight, taking the enemy on the flanks and at angles and again and again crushing them, then moving on to repeat the process. Up and down the field, left and right, around and around, forward always did they fight, and crushing the enemy down before them again and again. Though this phrase is sadly overused, TRULY from the jaws of defeat did your glorious army snatch victory for us, and won of us the point in the field battle. The self same marshal who started the battle on us so quickly said it better than I ever could, if less forsoothly than is perhaps to be wished, when he said, "Not only did the Outlands save your bacon, they cooked it, made a 'sammich' out of it, served it to you and then did the dishes!" Truly that is how instrumental to the victory your people were despite their numbers, proving again, that the Heart of Heroes and Lions beats in the Army of the Stag!

In great thanks and with humble gratitude.

Sir Caladin Ironhearth,
General, Ansteorra.

Seneschal

Greetings,

Camping season is officially upon us. There are many events both large and small that promise to delight and entertain this summer. Don't forget to take all the proper precautions when camping, and please use care when traveling to and from these events.

I want to once again remind everyone that the Board of Directors has approved raising the nonmember surcharge to $5.00 from the current $3.00, and membership dues by $5.00 beginning July 1st. If you need to renew your membership soon, or are running gate at an event please be aware of this deadline.

The first Battlemoor Mountain Crusades begins at the end of this month. This should definitely be on your summer itinerary, and I hope to see lots of folks from this Kingdom as well as visitors from far lands there. You will find all the details for this event, or you can visit the web site for more information.

In conclusion, I will be in attendance at Valkyries Present in al-Barran, and of course Battlemoor this month. As always, if you would like to visit with me about anything please feel free to find me at one of these events.

Yours in Service,
Master James David

Exchequer

Unto the good kingdom of the Outlands does Maistre Louis-Philippe Mitouard, Kingdom Exchequer, send greetings.

Gentles, it has been my pleasure to serve as Kingdom Exchequer for the past two years. As my term is up, the kingdom is seeking a new exchequer. You should have seen postings via electronic media regarding the deadline, but as a reminder we will begin interviewing the candidates whose resumes we have received as of June 1st. The new exchequer should expect to take office at Battlemoor Wars. A brief summary of the requirements is given below.

As I leave this office, I would be remiss if I did not praise the hardworking exchequers of the Outlands. You all have improved the quality of your groups and your kingdom. You do a job that is unseen but very necessary. Thank You.

I also want to thank my deputies: Mistress Brianna, Master Grellan, HL Isobel, Mistress Signy, and my emergency deputy, Mistress Thorhalla. These gentles have taken on kingdom-level responsibility and, again, have been unseen, but greatly felt.

Brief Job Description for Kingdom Exchequer (for full details, see http://www.outlands.org): In brief, workload will vary, but expect to put in a peak of 20 hours per week, especially at reporting deadlines (quarterly reports every 3 months with the doomsday report due in February-March).

In service to the Outlands,
Louis

White Stag

Greetings to the Great and Glorious Folk of the Outlands –

I would like to welcome Master Balthazar as Blue Iris for Their Royal Majesties Alrik and Salomea.

As always, I would like to hear any comments you have about the College of Heralds. Complements, complaints, and general commentary are all appreciated. This month I will be out of the Kingdom for a lot of this month, with trips to An Tir for the Known World Herald and Scribes Symposium and a trip to Atlantia for the annual meeting of the Great Dark Horde. But I will be checking my email during all these trips, so please, if you need me, please send a missive.

Question for the Month – What is a seme? An adjective meaning that something is strewn with identical charges. (It is from the French semé, the past participle of the verb semer 'to strew'.) The charges so used are called strewn charges. When placed directly on the field, strewn charges are considered a separate charge group from any other charges. Strewn charges may be considered the primary charge group if there are no other charge groups present or if the only other charge groups present are peripheral charge groups. When placed on another charge, strewn charges are considered a tertiary charge group. Strewn charges are not considered a field treatment. Ermine spots in an ermined tincture are not considered strewn charges; they are considered part of a separate tincture. Taken from the SCA College of Arms Glossary of Terms accessible at http://heraldry.sca.org/coagloss.html.

The list of alternate titles has been updated. It is available at http://heraldry.sca.org/titles.html. If you wish to see what the accepted alternate titles are for your time and place, please check on here.

If anyone is interested in hosting an Outlands Heralds and Scribes Symposium, please contact me. I would like to get this on the schedule as early as possible. The next one should ideally be in April 2011.

In Service to the Outlands
Sheik Omar Mohammud Mirzazadeh

Rapier Marshal

Greetings, Rapier fighters of the Outlands!

By the time you read this missive, I will be sitting in the shade with a pint of stout in hand. Mistress Rivka Vladimirovna Rivkina of Caerthe will have stepped up as the Kingdom Rapier Marshal at Grand Outlandish. I have had the pleasure to serve with her as my deputy for the past two years and I know that she will serve this office and the Kingdom's rapier combatants well. Please regard her as you have regarded me.

I look forward to tourneying and meleeing with you all. I get to play again!

Yours in Combat,
Don Ulrich

Archer General

A short time ago I had a chance to go down to the Battlemoor site to mark out the range for the archers. I am very pleased to let you all know that the staff for Battlemoor has given us a great spot for our archers. The range is over 300' wide by a little over 850' long. This is nice and large. We will be setting up several ranges. We will have a range for Thrown Weapons, Kids range, Static range, timed range, long distance range, Practice and Royal Round range, and possibly a separate range for prize shoots. At this point Earl Mika and I have come up with almost 50 shoots that we will be running at Battlemoor. We are still looking for those groups or people that would like to run their own prize shoots. We have an area set aside for that but at this time no-one has stepped forward to run any of these. (We have one couple that we are talking to.) It would be great if some group like a barony/shire/canton, or an order (Golden Pheon or Sharparrow) would step forward and come up with a prize shoot. Even a household or a single person can run a shoot. If anybody would like to come up with something please get in touch with the Archer General. I am real easy to find.

The new Thrown Weapons rules have been signed by the King and Queen. They will be posted to the Archer General's Web site very soon. Lord Jethro has been working very hard to come up with a good set of rules. I feel that he has done a great job. This was a tough assignment, and he did a good job. Thank you.

The archers now have a good place to check their scores, and all sorts of other things. Please go to http://www.scores-sca.org/home/index.php?R=1 to see this site. It has loads of information, and it will continue to grow. Every time a marshal adds a new score the site gets better and better. We even have the green card info on here to track and let us know when people are about to expire. This site is very fun to explore and look at all sorts of info.

The AG staff needs your input. We would like to know how we are doing. We are here for you, the archer. Our job is to keep archery fun for you all, but we need your input. Is there something that you would like to see us do, or do different? We would like to know if you feel that there is anybody that needs to get recognized with an award. Are there any shoots that you would like to see? Shoots that you don't want to see? Let us know.

All for now,
Forrester

Chronicler

As you are by now aware, the Outlandish Herald has gone through some changes. I felt that with the increasing costs of printing, and the increasing use of the internet, I wanted to make the Outlandish Herald more. So here is the new version. Please do not hesitate to let me know what you feel can be added or improved.

Scribe

Greetings and warm wishes unto all whom these letters may come!

The reign of Bela and Anna has drawn to a close, and it was indeed a wondrous time. During the past reign, scrolls were created for 162 awards by 51 scribes. I would like to offer my deepest thanks to each of them for their dedication and generosity. Special thanks to Elanor, Giovanna and Hannah, who each created 5 scrolls during the reign, and to Llywus and Monika who created 6. I offer deepest thanks to Bennet, who completed 12 scrolls, to Avram, with 14 scrolls and to Christina, with 15 scrolls. To Geua, who created 21 of the scrolls that graced the courts of the past reign, I cannot thank her enough for her skilled and generous dedication to the Outlands. Thank you all for making the courts shine!

The scribes who created scrolls for the reign of Bela and Anna are:

I encourage all scribes to remember that special/custom texts for scrolls are welcome and encouraged. To use a special text, please send it to me or one of my deputies for approval before texting your scroll. Also, please remember that THL Lyssa has kindly taken over management of our website, at www.scribes.outlands.org, and her contact information is available there. She is accepting photo updates for the gallery, should you wish to add images of your scrolls so that all can see and enjoy them. We also welcome other comments or information for the website.

Minister of Children

Greetings to the great populace of the Outlands,

We are looking forward to lots of fun with our youth and guests from other kingdoms, ages 5-17 at Battlemoor July 1st-4th. Be enchanted at a magic show and then learn how to do some period magic. Learn more about the Outlands Page Academy, enroll as a Page and earn lots of Page Academy credits. Be sure to bring your boffers! Learn new boffering techniques and then fight in a youth boffer melee against some of the best heavy fighters in the Known World. Take a ride on a hay wagon or ride in a stick horse tournament (each adult must have a child to enter.) Learn period songs and participate in the Youth Bardic. Take a period foods class and then enjoy lunch with your teacher. Learn tips on drawing and calligraphy. Be in service. Learn some new period games. Watch a blacksmith make items at his forge. Learn how to weave cord with a lucet and take a new lucet home to practice. Court dance and Middle Eastern dance with your friends. Try your hand at archery and shoot in lots of fun youth archery shoots (youth loaner archery equipment will be available). Design your own heraldic device and learn how to herald a tournament. Make new friends! ! And much, much more!

For our youth and teens who want to be in service, there will also be opportunities for running errands, running list cards at tournaments, helping out in the children's and youth tent, and learning to herald tournaments. For babies and children thru 4 years old, there will be a shaded and carpeted area for parents to watch and play with their children. Please bring your own toys. There will be a "gift" from the Outlands for each youth (1 month-age 17) when they check in at the gate. If you are bringing minors to this event and you are not the parent or legal guardian, there will be two different "notarized" forms that you must present at the gate, before the minor can enter the site. Please check the Battlemoor website at http://www.battlemoor.org/ for those forms. Both of these forms will have to be signed in advance by the minors' parents or legal guardians in front of a notary.

We are going to need LOTS and LOTS of volunteers and teachers. If you are interested in helping to teach a class or volunteering in the Youth Hall at Battlemoor, please contact me as soon as possible at krege@aps.edu so that we can schedule you with your interests. We ask that each parent or guardian provide at least one hour of help at the Youth Hall for each of their youth (ages 5-12) who participate in the youth activities and classes.

THCady Jayne Barber

Minister of the Lists

Greetings to all who come by these letters. My name is Avram ibn Gabirol, and I have the honor of being the Outlands new Minister of the Lists. I greatly look forward to serving the Kingdom in this role, having stepped up from Caerthe's MOL position after 3 ½ years. My thanks to THL Jibrai'l for taking over in my home barony.

Spring Crown has come and gone, and was a success for the lists and the fighters. I wanted to thank Lady Shyla and Master James David for their help at the list table, and Duchess Katheryn for double checking things for me. Also, thanks to Lady Shyla for the wonderful new MOL regalia of a bag and table cloth with the office badge on them – they will be well used. Princess Protector on Sunday was also quite enjoyable, even if the weather was a bit…odd. All in all, my first Crown as MOL was a good one, and I look forward to many more to come.

A reminder to all fighters that, by our combat rules, you need to have your blue membership and green authorization cards to participate in an official tournament, and all marshals need to be authorized.

Should anyone be interested in learning lists, please don't hesitate to contact me or your local MOL – we are always happy to teach, as it makes our job easier down the road.

In service,
Cord Avram ibn Gabirol

FROM THE SABLE CHAMBER

A More Renown Polyalphabetic Cipher

by Sayyid Suleiman ibn Da'ud ibn Sahl al-Qalqashandi

Previous columns discussed polyalphabetic ciphers focusing mostly on one of the earliest inventors, Leon Battista Alberti. Alberti's ciphers, however, failed to gain widespread use. It would be over 100 years before one of the most famous polyalphabetic ciphers would find its way into a publication and even longer before it saw regular usage!

The book in which it would be found was written by Blaise de Vigenere in 1585 and was called Traicte des Chiffres. Although the book covered many topics, including Japanese ideograms, alchemy, and the Kabbalah, it was his discussion on polyalphabetic ciphers that has garnered him lasting fame.

Remember, polyalphabetic ciphers are encryption methods wherein the same encrypted letter can represent many different plain text letters. In a polyalphabetic cipher, the letter 'X' might represent 'E' in one part of the message and 'R' in another.

Recent usages often employed a tableau similar to the following:

A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z
B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z A
C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z A B

To use the Vigenere cipher, the correspondents select a phrase or keyword to use such as "OUTLANDS". This keyword is then written out and repeated for the entire length of the message. Therefore, each letter within the message should match to one letter of the keyword which will be the letter used to encipher the plaintext character. The keyword letter is then found within the first column and indicates the row to be used. The plain text letter is then found within the first row (that beginning with 'A'). Where the column and row intersect is the letter that is to be used. Here is an example:

KEYWORD:	OUTLANDSOUTLANDSOUT
PLAINTEXT:	FROMTHESABLECHAMBER
CIPHERTEXT:	TLHWTTGJOVEPCUD EPYK

Admittedly this is an incredibly condensed explanation of the cipher. A future column will elaborate and also discuss ways in which the system can be cracked including some ways alluded to by Vigenere himself.

But that fellow Outlanders, is a cipher story for another day.

LAST COLUMN'S ANSWER: But although I heard and saw these things, because of doubt and low opinion of myself and because of diverse sayings of men, I refused for a long time a call to write, not out of stubbornness but out of humility - St. Hildegard Von Bingen

THIS MONTH'S HINTS: The keyword is "CLARE"

A Collection of Songs
as
Written or Recorded Within the SCA

Transcription By: Winona Bartlemay

First, my thanks to Lady Cáelainn, the Chronicler of the Kingdom of the Outlands under the reign of King Béla III and Queen Anna. Were it not for her help and patience, this record might not have survived another move of my household from one more place to the next. The physical copies will remain in the trust of the Royal Chroniclers, so that the pages might be preserved for some poor Outlandish historian someday. Some of these songs are from Calontír, some are shortened versions of poems that were put to tunes now lost and some are just good, old-fashioned, irreverent and bawdy songs that come up when the fighting is done for the day, the folks circle around the fire and various brews warm the blood and loosen the tongue.

Second, I thank THL Talina the Gypsy, who gave these songs into my care "to keep them safe." Somehow, I don't believe that she thought I would "keep them safe" for twenty years! However, I was fortunate enough to find a box of materials that dated from 1989-1990, when I was the Reeve of Drygestan. The songs listed in the Table of Contents are copied as they are written, though I never saw the score for any of them. I remember that one of the older Bards (perhaps not the official title), remembered the tunes to which these were put, but I haven't the musical talent to know them, much less remember them from twenty years ago.

Third, I would like to thank and remember the people of Drygestan that made those few short years that I shared a joyful experience. I remember a few and I want to list them now and for those whose names I have forgotten, I apologize. Therefore, to those who I remember: THL Talina the Gypsy, THL Conchobhar mac Máeláin (also known as THL Iannon the Contentious, Requiescat in pace), his lady wife, THL Etain, our young friend, Bela, without whose help we would never have assembled pavilions because Talina, Etain and myself were too short and finally, THL Sir Kragon of Land's End, whose honor and level head often kept our officer's meetings from turning towards the ridiculous.

Finally, I want to thank those who came up with the "Drygestan Counting System" when I was trying to get you all to speak Foresoothly. Just for that, the young maidens should have completed the Drygestan Teddy for Maids and Matrons alike (to compare with the more modest fighter tabards –the feminine design of the Drygestan tree was much more fun) and sung "No More Lonely Knights" at one of the Grand Outlandish-es!

Circles

In days gone by, when the world was much younger,
Men wandered at Spring born of Winter's cold night;
Wondering at the games of the Moon and Sunlight,
They saw there the Lady and Lord of all time.

(Chorus)
And around, and around, and around turns the good earth,
All things must change as the season's go by;
We are the children of the Lord and the Lady,
Whose mysteries we know, but we never know why.

In all lands, the people were tied to the good earth,
Plowing and sowing as the seasons declared;
Waiting to reap the rich, golden harvest,
And know Her laugh in the joy that they shared.

(Chorus)

Through Flanders and Wales, and the green lands of Ireland,
In the Kingdoms of England, and Scotland and Spain,
Circles grew up all along the wild coastline,
And worked for the land with the Sun and the Rain.

(Chorus)

Circles for healing and working the weather;
Circles for knowing the Moon and the Sun;
Circles for Thanking the Lord and the Lady;
Circles for the dance never done.

(Chorus)

And we, who reach for the Stars in the Heavens,
Turning our eyes from the Meadows and Groves,
Still live in the Love of the Lord and the Lady,
The Greater the Circle, the more the Love grows.

(Chorus)

The Barony of Caer Galen

Site: The South Platte Historical Society site, CR 14 1/2, Fort Lupton, CO
Site Fee: $5 per person, Family cap $25, NMS Applies. Checks payable to SCA-Caer Galen.
Autocrat: Massimiliano Caer Galen (Joe Campanella), 303-859-7439 or unlikely@gmail.com
Site is Wet. No pets, please.

YES! You read the site fee right. It's $5. You may ask, What if I _____? No matter what is in the blank (Except "am not a member" - then you have to add the $3 NMS) the answer is $5! What if I am a kid? $5. What if I come and play but I also want to camp? $5. What if I'm 80 and I need a wheelchair? $5. What if I decide to eat lunch on-site? $5! Could there be a simpler fee structure? COULD THERE BE A BETTER PRICE FOR A WEEKEND OF PURE UNFILTERED JOY??

To reach this amazing event: From I-25, go East off exit 235 (Highway 52). Turn left (North) at Highway 85. Turn left on 14th St/CR 14 1/2. The site is approximately 1/2 mile west of HW 85 on CR14 1/2. Watch for signs. We'll see you there!

Greetings unto the populace of the known world.

June is finally here and Lilies War is about to begin! Check your camping gear for last minute repairs and upgrades. Archers, ready your bows! Warriors repair and dress up that armor, artisans hone your craft and shoppers make sure to leave room in your wagons for all the goodies you will find. Our Henrys are ready to take the field and their opponents are preparing for battle. The battlefield has a new home this year so check the map online and in the site booklet so you can orient yourself to the new lay of the land.

The schedule is up on our website so you can begin to plan you time at the war. You can view this at: http://www.calontir.sca.org/lilieswar/lilies24/index.php. With so many classes, melees, and tournaments during the day, there will never be a dull moment at this year's Lilies War. Our wonderful staff has been working diligently to provide fun for all ages. Make sure to take time out of your busy day to relax by the lake or in the shade though, so you can be ready to enjoy all the evening's festivities. There are wonderful parties and tournaments that have also been scheduled.

Please remember that we will not be opening the main gate to the Lilies War site until 8:00am Friday morning. By the main gate, we mean the metal gate at the entrance to the site, by the road. We will be letting people on to site at 8am to stage in the parking lot to await the opening of troll. Also, we have posted the troll form online, so you can download the form, fill it out and have it ready to turn in when troll opens.

We look forward to seeing all of you at the 24th Lilies War!

Yours in Service,
HE Gabrielle von Friedrichstahl (Gabby) and HG Alethea Charle

Clann War

Nahrun Kabirun
August 20-22, 2010

SamTobias Camp Ground, Lincoln Forest – Ruidoso, NM 88345
Autocrat: THL Corbin de Heather (575) 621-2388 – corbincenturion@yahoo.com
$10.00 per member - $3.00 nonmember fee. Ages 6-12 - $5.00. Children under 6 are free. Family Cap (2 adults and their non-adult children) $40.00 plus non-member fee per individuals.

After a long hot summer join us in the cool high mountains of the southern Outlands for tournaments and much merriment. There will be plenty of competitions in the arts of war - light and heavy tournaments/melees, and open archery range. Evening festivities are always merry! The site includes RV parking (no hook ups), water, and limited electricity. Restaurants, laundry mats, and hotels are less than 5 miles away in Ruidoso. The weather is comfortable (70s) during the day and cool at night (40s) with always a chance of rain. The site is wet and camp restrictions - such as fire - will be announced closer to the event.

Directions: From Nahrun and Citadel take your best route to Hwy 54. In Tularosa turn right on to Hwy 70. From al-Baran take your best route to Hwy 54 (One suggestion is I25 south to Hwy 380 and turn east, at Carrizozo turn south onto Hwy 54). Turn left onto Hwy 70. In Ruidoso turn left onto Sudderth. Turn right onto Mechem. Turn Left on Cedar Creek Drive. Turn right into Sam Tobias/Cedar Creek Camp site.

From the Chairman of the Board:

We need your input! If you have an opinion about any of the nominees, your commentary, both positive and negative, is very much needed and gratefully received by the Board. You may comment on any aspect of the person's suitability as a director that you feel is important. In addition, new nominations are always needed and strongly encouraged as are re-nominations of any who expire. Any SCA member may nominate any member, including themselves. All information received is kept completely confidential, and no one ever sees commentary on themselves.

Please send all comments and nominations to Kim McAuley, Board Recruiting, PO Box 360789, Milpitas CA 95036, kmcauley@director.sca.org, or recruiting@sca.org. Please include your name and address in any letter sent concerning these matters, and remember to include the name and address of anyone you nominate for the Board so that we may contact them. You will receive a response indicating that we received your correspondence.

Outlandish Herald Submission Guidelines

Event Registration Forms can be found on the Kingdom website or from your Seneschal. Please make certain that a copy of the completed form is sent to the chronicler (see page 6 for contact info).

Event Announcements for events held within the boundaries of the Outlands will be printed free of charge. Groups from outside of the Outlands are invited to publish their event announcements at the commercial rates or contact the Chronicler about bartering for ad space, on a space available basis.

Electronic submissions are preferred. Hardcopy submissions will be accepted in any readable form but will be subject to retyping. Event announcements may be edited for length when space limitations occur. Please do not use any special formatting or fonts when submitting event announcements. Deadline for the submission of event announcements is the 1st of the month prior to publication.

ALL event announcements not containing mandatory elements will be returned to the submitter for correction. The following elements MUST be contained in the event announcement to ensure publication in the Outlandish Herald. If these mandatory elements are not included, the event notice will be returned to submitter for correction.

- Name of the event
- Date of the event (day, month and Common Era year)
- Times of the event - when the site opens and closes,
- Name of the sponsoring group
- Mundane location of the site (site name, city, state, zip), and WRITTEN directions. Maps are optional.
- Autocrat information: both SCA and legal names, address, telephone number, email address if available.
- A concise schedule of fees, including a statement regarding non-member fees. If there are no fees associated with the event, that must be clearly stated.
- The statement "Checks payable to 'SCA, Inc - GROUP NAME' ".
- Alcohol Status (Wet, dry, discreetly wet, etc.)
- Any additional site restrictions or information.

Commercial Advertisements:
